I love this book! Donaudy is a somewhat obscure, yet really awesome composer. Although he is technically a late Romantic/ early Contemporary composer his style is neo-Baroque. This book is appropriate for the advanced student/singer but also has some pieces that would suit a less experienced student. I am using three of the pieces in my senior recital. The only draw back is that all of the pieces in this book are about love or unrequited love, but then I guess most Italian songs are.

Beautiful editions at reasonable prices. Great print, which is important for people who need clear, large, print for studying music. Cover art is lovely and durable. It's wonderful to have a great collection of lesser known works (soon to be often done works).

It filled its purpose, I really like the poetic translation, the only reason I am giving it 4 stars is sadly because, its DONaudy. LOL I mean Donaudy is so meh. lol
