à®‡ Fuzzy Wuzzy's Summary:Ñ Ñ Ñ Ñ Ñ Highly recommended with warm fuzzies!When I purchased this book back in 2004, I was reaching an intermediate level of expertise with playing the blues, but my note bending was still wobbly and inconsistent. It has taken me a few years (and LOTS of practice) to grow into this great treasure chest of classic Chicago-style blues. When I purchased this book in 2004, I could find no other collection of blues harmonica tablature like this either in print or on the Internet. And now, 8 years later, there is STILL no other single collection of blues harp tablature like this to be found anywhere! This book's publisher, Hal Leonard, publishes many countless music books and sheet music collections. Some of Hal Leonard's books are better than others. This is a really great collection. But it seems that Hal Leonard hardly ever revise their books with later updates and more content, so many of their books remain in a "1st Edition" frozen state forever. And this excellent collection of blues harp tablature is no exception. I just wished that they would publish an expanded updated edition to this 20-year old book. There are 41 classic blues songs included in this book, annotated with a three-way combination of music notation, chords, and harmonica tablature.
