Customer Reviews

This is useless. No useful insights are provided, and the author gets the facts wrong. I read this book with "Nine Stories" open right next to it to make sure I wasn't misunderstanding, but it became quite clear that Mr. Crayola had completely mischaracterized certain events. A close reading of "Down at The Dinghy" alongside Mr. Crayola's synopsis will reveal the discrepancies clearly.

I thought I would be able to read the stories which I have always admired. I have the paperback, but at 89 the eyes have moved south. I don't need to study the stories - just want to read them in an appropriate type size.

Perfect book companion. Very helpful.
